

Expense Reimbursement Policy

Category: Expenses | Effective: January 2025 | Version 1.0

Purpose

This Expense Reimbursement Policy provides clear guidelines and procedures for employees of inmind.ai to claim reimbursement for business-related expenses, in compliance with Lebanese Labour Law and industry best practices. The policy ensures fairness, transparency, and accountability in the management of company resources.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees of inmind.ai, including full-time, part-time, and contract staff, who incur expenses while conducting legitimate business activities for the company. This includes, but is not limited to, transportation, accommodation, meals, office supplies, and other work-related expenditures.

Eligibility Criteria

- Authorized Expenses: Employees are eligible to claim reimbursement for expenses that are:
 - Necessary and directly related to the performance of their duties.
 - Pre-approved by their direct supervisor or department head, where applicable.
 - Incurred while adhering to the company's travel and expenditure guidelines.
- Employee Categories: This policy covers the following categories of employees:
 - Full-time employees.
 - Part-time employees, provided the expenses are linked to their assigned tasks.
 - Contractual staff, contingent upon the terms outlined in their contract.
- Non-Reimbursable Expenses: The following are examples of expenses that are not eligible for reimbursement:
 - Personal expenses unrelated to business activities.
 - Fines, penalties, or traffic violations incurred during business trips.
 - Alcoholic beverages unless consumed during official business events and pre-approved.
 - Loss of personal property.

General Guidelines

- Pre-Approval Requirement: Employees must obtain prior written approval for all major expenditures exceeding $500 (or its equivalent in Lebanese Pounds) from their department head or a designated manager.
- Documentation Requirements: Employees must provide detailed and accurate documentation for all expenses, including:
 - Original receipts or invoices clearly showing the amount, date, and nature of the expense.
 - For mileage claims, a log with the date, purpose of the trip, starting location, destination, and kilometers traveled.
 - For travel expenses, boarding passes and hotel bills must be attached.
- Timeliness of Claims: Claims for reimbursement must be submitted within 30 calendar days from the date the expense was incurred. Claims submitted after this period may only be considered under exceptional circumstances approved by the HR Department.
- Exchange Rate Policy: For expenses incurred in foreign currencies, employees must provide proof of the exchange rate used (e.g., credit card statement or official exchange rate on the date of the transaction). The company will use the official exchange rate for reimbursement purposes.

Reimbursement Process

- Submission of Claims:
 - Employees must complete the Expense Reimbursement Form, available on the company's HR portal.
 - Attach all required supporting documentation to the form.
 - Submit the completed form to their immediate supervisor for initial review and approval.
- Supervisor Review:

- The supervisor must review the accuracy and legitimacy of the expense claims.
- Once approved, the supervisor forwards the claim to the Finance Department for processing.

3. Finance Department Review:

- The Finance Department verifies the submitted documentation and ensures compliance with this policy.
- Approved claims are processed for payment within 10 business days from the date of submission to the Finance Department.

4. Payment of Reimbursement:

- Reimbursements are made via bank transfer to the employee's registered bank account.
- Employees will receive a notification email once the reimbursement is processed.

Exceptions

1. Emergency Expenses: In cases of emergency where prior approval is not possible, employees must notify their direct supervisor within 24 hours of incurring the expense. The supervisor must confirm the necessity and legitimacy of the expense retrospectively.

2. Lost or Missing Receipts:

- If an employee is unable to provide a receipt for a legitimate expense, they must complete a Missing Receipt Declaration Form and provide a detailed explanation of the expense.
- Approval of such claims is at the sole discretion of the Finance Department and may require additional authorization from senior management.

3. Advance Payments:

- In certain cases, employees may request an advance payment for anticipated business expenses. Such requests must be submitted to the Finance Department at least 5 business days before the funds are required.
- Employees who receive advance payments are required to submit a detailed expense report and return any unused funds within 15 days of completing the activity.

Employee Responsibilities

1. Employees are responsible for:

- Ensuring that all expenses are reasonable, necessary, and directly related to company business.
- Obtaining and retaining original receipts and documentation for all expenses.
- Submitting claims accurately and in a timely manner.
- Adhering to this policy and any additional guidelines issued by their department.

2. Non-compliance with this policy may result in:

- Denial of reimbursement claims.
- Disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, in cases of intentional misrepresentation or fraud.

Employer Responsibilities

1. inmind.ai is committed to:

- Providing clear guidelines and training to employees on the reimbursement process.
- Processing reimbursement claims in a timely and accurate manner.
- Maintaining transparency and fairness in the evaluation and approval of claims.
- Ensuring compliance with Lebanese Labour Law and applicable tax regulations.

Review and Amendments

This policy will be reviewed annually by the HR and Finance Departments to ensure it remains relevant and compliant with Lebanese Labour Law and the company's operational needs. Any amendments to this policy will be communicated to employees in writing.

Contact Information

For questions or clarifications regarding this policy, employees should contact the HR Department at hr@inmind.ai or the Finance Department at finance@inmind.ai.

Acknowledgment

Employees must acknowledge their understanding and acceptance of this policy by signing the Expense Reimbursement Policy Acknowledgment Form, available on the HR portal. Failure to provide acknowledgment does not exempt employees from adhering to the policy.
